A brief history – 1996

Matthew Jacoby – Founder/Leader The early years up to 1996 are very blurry but I think the reason I can't remember much is because there isn't actually much to remember. We had a band with a name but really didn't do more than a handful of small gigs a year. In 1996 we recorded an ...

The name Sons of Korah

Sons of Korah (see 12:36-37)

We often get asked about the band name – where it comes from and, if you know the biblical story, why we'd choose such a name for our band.

The name "Sons of Korah" comes from a group of Old Testament Levitical musicians to whom at least 13 of the Psalms are attributed. The original Sons of Korah were responsible for the ministry of music and song in the Old Testament worship and particularly with the musical composition and performance of the psalms. What follows is the remarkable story of this family according to the brief records of the Bible.

The Story of the Sons of Korah is a wonderful story of God's grace. In the Old Testament text of the Psalms reference is made to those who were involved in the composition of the psalms. Psalms 42 to 49 as well as Psalms 84 to 88 are attributed to a group known as the "Sons of Korah" (see the small print titles under the numbers of the psalms). It appears that this family of musicians were descendants of the same Korah who led a rebellion against Moses in the desert (Numbers 16). This was a serious crime that led to serious consequences for all those involved. We read that God caused
